

Southern Brown Tree Frog or Ewing's Tree Frog Litoria ewingi

When to look:

Throughout year,
particularly from late
winter

Pale fawn cream,
orange to light
brown or green
body. Wide brown
band from its eyes
to down its back

Narrow black or brown stripe
from its snout,
through to its
eye, to shoulder

Similar species:

Victorian Frog / False Ewing's Tree Frog (Litoria paraewingi):
generally smaller, with a slower call and not normally found in the same areas. Verreaux's Tree Frog (Litoria verreauxi): has dark or black blotches on its sides, Lesueur's Tree Frog (Litoria lesueuri): has a visible ear drum (a darker patch just behind its eye).

Listen to call: a series of rapid,
harsh whirring,
pulsing notes
"creeee creee
creee creee
creee" repeated
5-15 times

Half webbed
toes; no webbing
on fingers
